TO: Secretary/Examiner Civil Service Commission

AND TO: Officer Clyde Ray Spencer

FROM: Paul Grattet, City Manager (Appointing Authority)

I.

After a thorough investigation by the Police Department and after my careful consideration, I conclude that you should be, and are hereby, discharged and removed as a police officer of the City of Vancouver, Washington, as of this date, on the following grounds:

- (a) Incompetency, inefficiency, or inattention to or dereliction of duty. Civil Service Rules and Regulation 8.2.1.
- (b) Dishonesty, intemperance, immoral conduct, insubordination, discourteous treatment of the public or a fellow employee; or any other act or omission or commission tending to injure the public service; or any other willful failure on the part of the employee to properly conduct himself; or any willful violation of the provisions of Ch. 41.12 or 41.08, R.C.W. or of these rules and regulations. Civil Service Rules and Regulation 8.2.2.

- (c) Any other act or failure to act which, in the judgment of the Civil Service Commission, is sufficient to show the offender to be an unsuitable and unfit person to be employed in the public service. Civil Service Rule 8.2.6.

II.

The reasons for your discharge and removal are summarized as follows:

- (a) That you did engage in sexual relations with a minor and that such relations were immoral;

- (b) That prior to joining the Vancouver Police Department you did sexually assault an individual; and

- (c) That between October 1979 and January 1980 you did report false information to your supervisors while you were involved in an undercover investigation.

III.

A more detailed statement of the reasons for your discharge and removal will be promptly provided to you upon your request or request by your attorney.

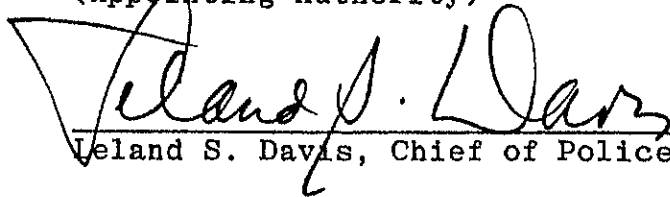

IV.

You may, within ten days of service of this notice, appeal to the Civil Service Commission by filing with its Secretary/ Examiner a written request for a Commission investigation. Civil Service Rule 8.3.

DATED this 8th day of January, 1985.

BILL OF PARTICULARS

Upon the written request of Clyde Ray Spencer dated January 8, 1985, the City of Vancouver hereby provides the following Bill of Particulars supporting its Notice of Dismissal dated January 8, 1985.

ALLEGATION NO. 1. That in the latter part of November 1978 while residing in Anaheim, California, Clyde Ray Spencer did forcibly and without consent compel Rhonda Short to engage in sexual intercourse with him. Ms. Short was at that time a high school student of approximately 18 years of age and was the daughter of Officer Spencer's next door neighbor.

ALLEGATION NO. 2. That during an undercover investigation of gambling concerns in downtown Vancouver conducted from September 1979 through January 1980 Clyde Ray Spencer did engage in an on-going sexual relationship with an undercover informant named Nancy Steigman. Such sexual relations occurred without the approval of Officer Spencer's superiors and such relations were not reported to Officer Spencer's superiors. Further, during a
